Catholic Schools Week 2012
January 29 – February 4

"We learn to care, to love, to share our gifts and talents. That's why Catholic education is so very important." -Sydney Zoretic, West Chester, PA

Catholic Schools Week is an annual national celebration of the important role that Catholic elementary and secondary schools across the country play in providing a values-added education for America's young people. Catholic schools are proud of their educational network that emphasizes intellectual, spiritual, moral, physical, and social values in their students.

The theme for Catholic Schools Week 2012 is "Catholic Schools: Faith, Academics, Service." The annual observance starts the last Sunday in January and will run throughout the week.

This year's theme focuses on three priorities that Catholic schools establish that make them stand out from other educational institutions.

1. Children are taught faith – not just the basics of Christianity, but how to have a relationship with God.
2. Academics, which in Catholic schools are held to very high standards, help each child reach his or her potential.
3. Service, the giving of one's time and effort to help others, is taught both as an expression of faith and good citizenship.

During Catholic Schools Week, Good Shepherd School will celebrate our students, faculty and staff, our parish, and our community with special events, activities, and community service.
